ACTIVITIES 34

Welcome to the 1971 "Celebration." We invite you to browse through the halls of learning, the program of activities, the display of sports, and the memories of senior days. Take as much time as you need. There is no hurry.

Our entire book consists of events that have taken place during the past year between September and June, and typical classroom scenes encompassing nine months of learning experience at Saint Anthony High. Our high point, though, is the Senior Section. Pages of portraits and photographs of times together rejuvenate memories of four happy years of high school. Our end sheets need no explanation. School spirit and enthusiasm explain themselves.

The time has come. We hope you enjoy your visit and will return again to experience the "Celebration" of '71.

Administration's Success

The education received at Saint Anthony High would be impossible without the sincere dedication of those who have made this school possible. These leaders are responsible for carrying out the education of the "full man", which is the goal of every Catholic school.

The administration constantly seeks to fulfill the needs of today's youth. Bishop Ahr plans the building and continuation of new Catholic high schools to accommodate enthusiastic learners. Monsignor Frain provides for the smooth functioning of such places of learning. Monsignor McCorristin's efforts for the establishment and maintenance of this school can never be overestimated. Built on a foundation of prayer, work, and sacrifice, Saint Anthony High cannot but aim to uphold the highest standards.

Without our faculty there would be no school. To Sister John Joseph, our principal, goes the sincerest appreciation for her ability to coordinate all school facets, as well as for her cooperation and fairness in both student and faculty affairs. Nor shall we ever forget the good Sisters, priests, and lay teachers who willingly devote their time and knowledge to the betterment of every Antonite. The superior scholastic background and the inspiration they offer will hopefully endure throughout our future lives.

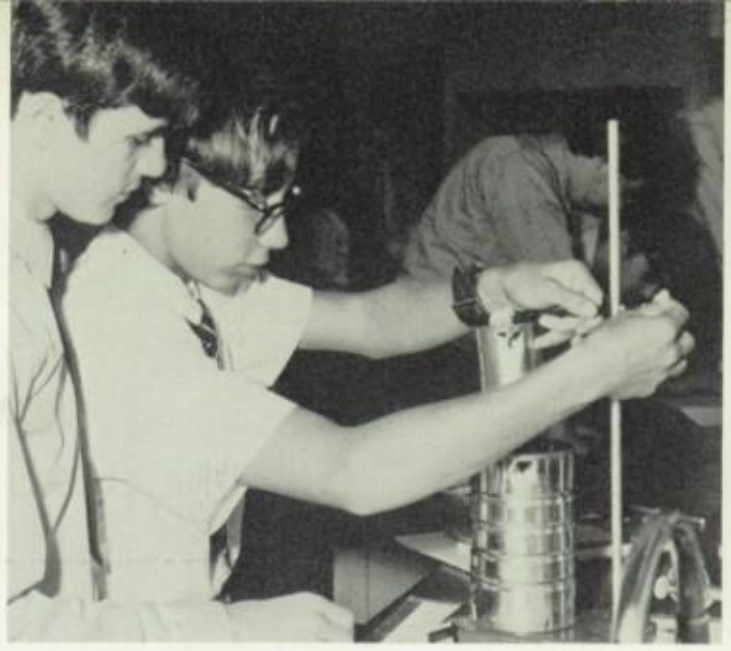
STUDY

'70-'71



"To learn, or not to learn, that was the question:
Whether 'twas wiser to suffer
The failure of physical science
Or to sign up for tutoring
And pass the test. To study — to fail —
No more; And by these efforts to say
We achieved an 'A' in biology
And were promoted to chemistry
To maintain a 'decent grade': ah there's the rub!
For if you do, you may graduate to physics."

Not only in science but also in other fields of study, students of Saint Anthony High will face this inevitable question: To learn or not to learn . . .

Besides the routine college preparatory and business courses offered here, the scholastic year '70-'71 brought with it some new additions. Harvard Project Physics was initiated this year for seniors under the direction of Mr. Companick. Still in its experimental stage, the course is designed to encourage more students to study physics, owing to its flexibility and lesser demand on mathematical representation. The project is supported by various corporations and science foundations. Teachers must be specially prepared to teach this course.

The Trenton Vocational Program is a released time project held at Trenton High. It was initiated this year for boys interested in mechanical skills. Future practical nurses receive training at Donnelly Hospital for post-high school graduation work. This, too, is a released time project.

Besides these three new additions, the Cooperative Work Program swung into another successful year of giving students the opportunities to test their skills in business and in other types of jobs.

Notwithstanding all these opportunities, "To learn or not to learn . . ." remains the question.

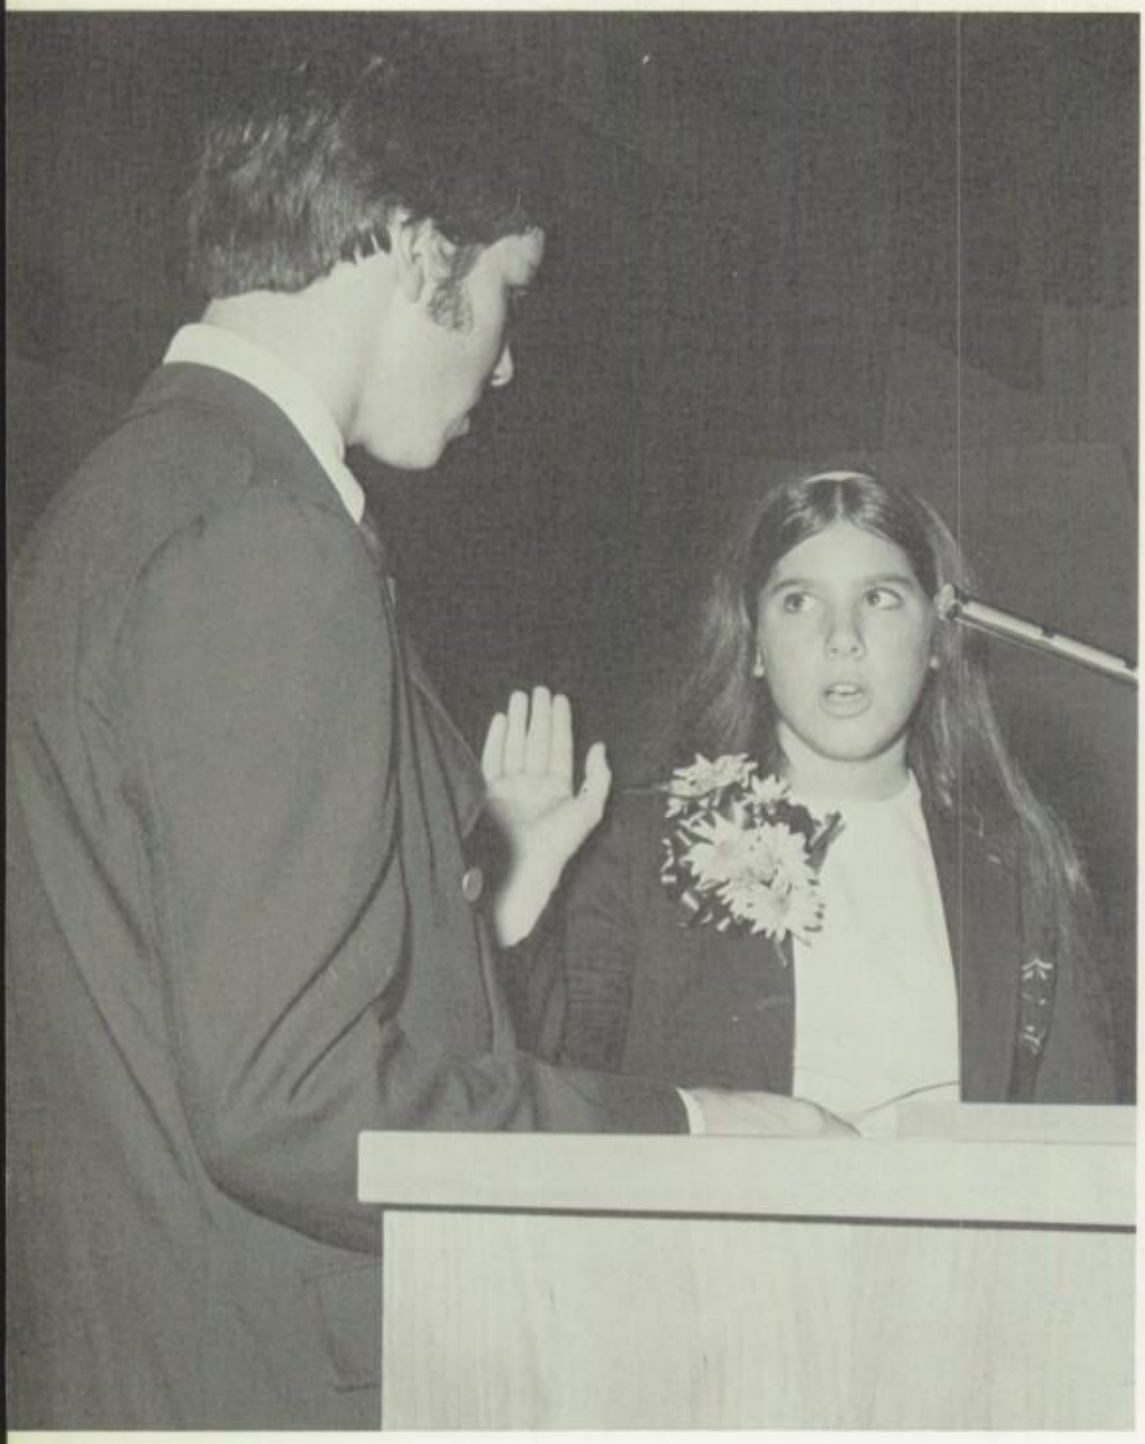
'71 Council Hopes to Dispel Apathy

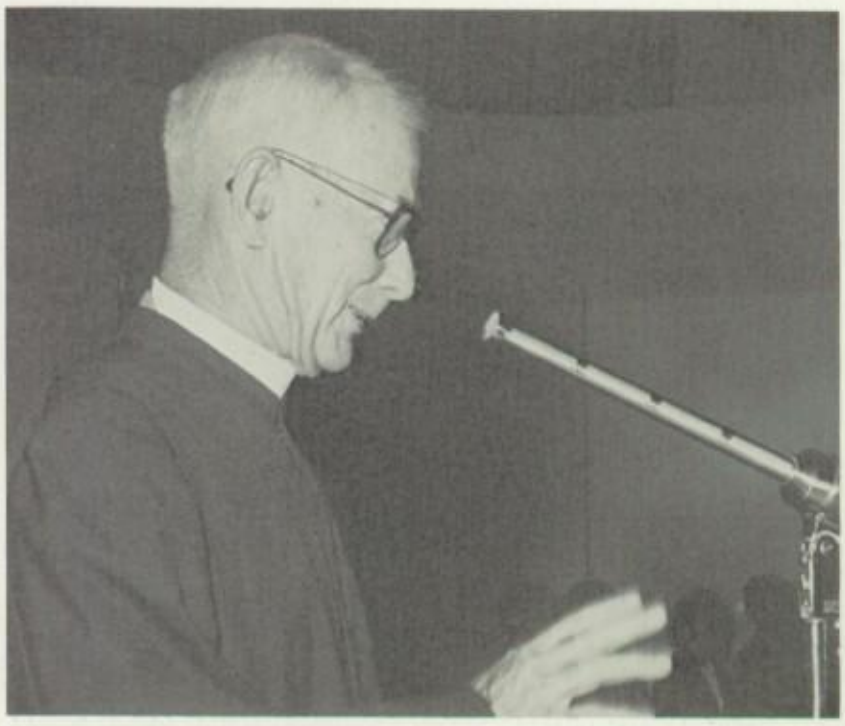


Newly-installed President Robert Gyenge administers the oath of office to Vice-President Alma Peters.

Communication. This one word is a most important and necessary factor if a student council is to run smoothly. Students must be able to express their ideas to their representatives, who in turn must communicate with the administration. This year's attempt at a better communication began with the Student Council Installation, September 25.

A partially successful effort to bridge the "communication gap" was made on November 18 at the first student/faculty forum. Students and faculty both showed an interest in understanding each other's point of view.

Projects sponsored by this year's council included a food basket presented to a needy family at Thanksgiving, a toy drive for underprivileged children at Christmas time, and various dances for the benefit of the school.



"You are the future of the Church and the state. You have a great responsibility because you are that future." Monsignor McCorristin addresses the students at the 1970-1971 Installation Ceremony.

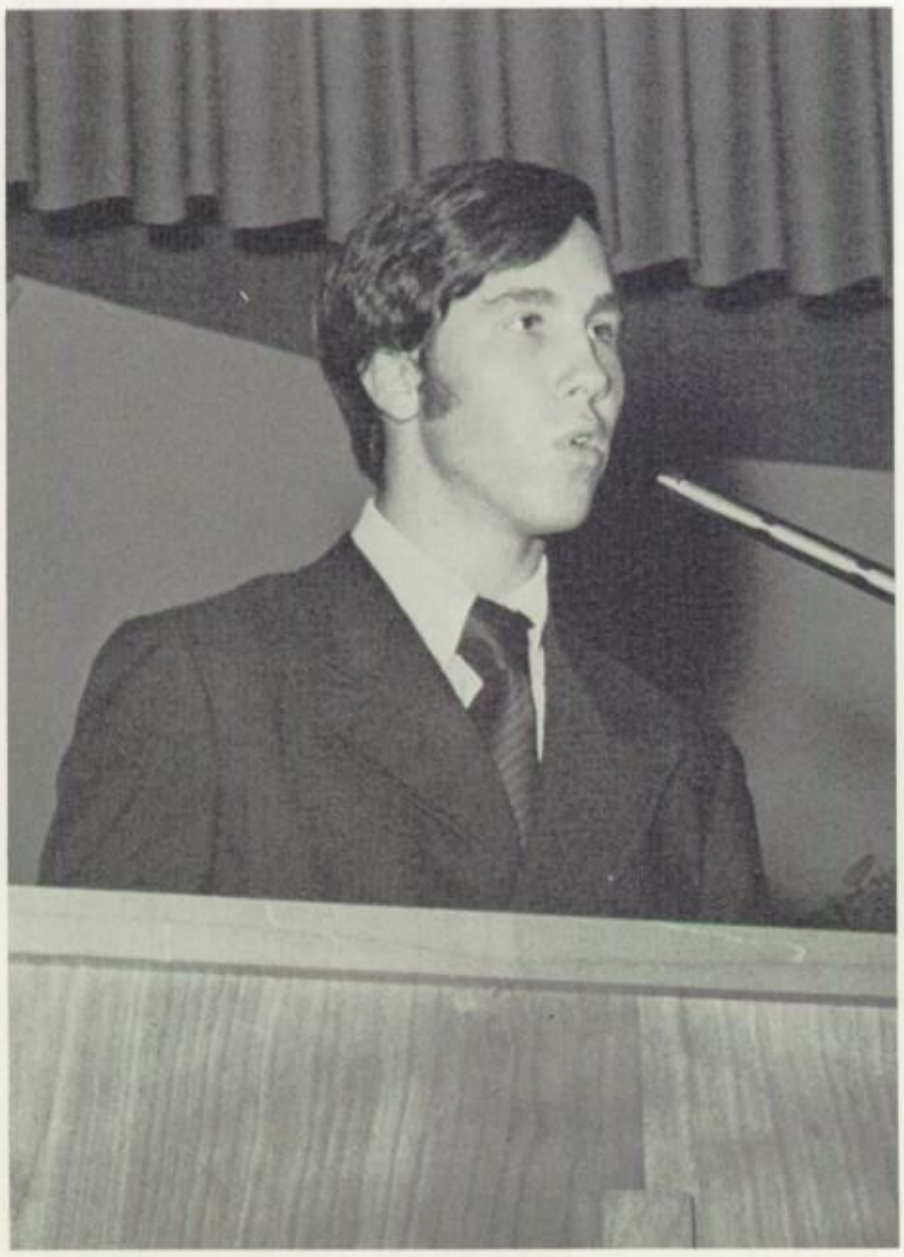
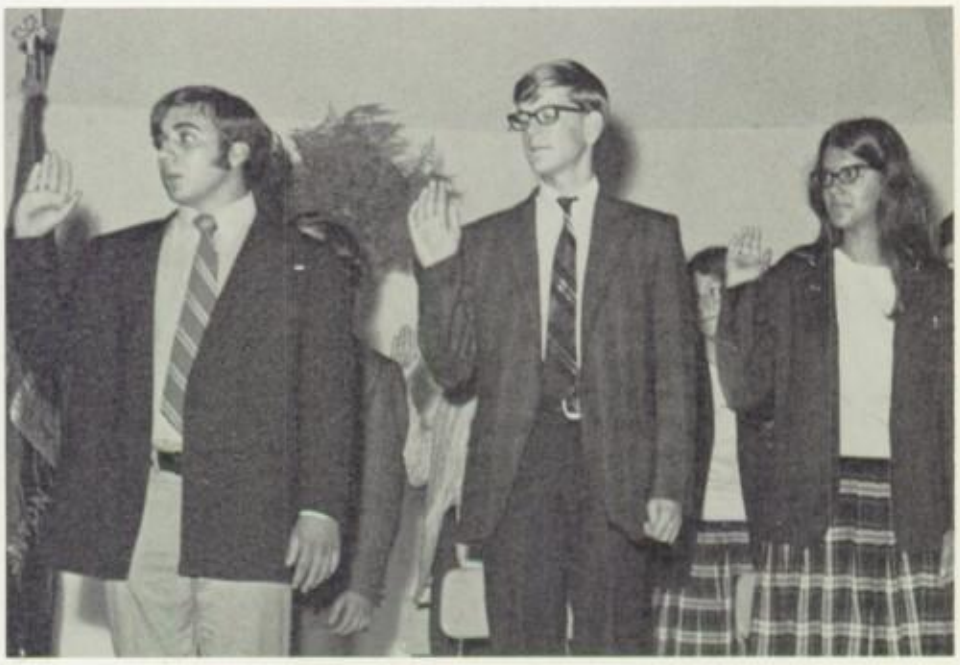
"I solemnly promise as president . . ." Sister John Helene, Student Council adviser, administers the oath of office to Robert Gyenge. Standing to the left is Michael Zampini, chairman of the installation ceremony. Seated are Secretary Karla LiVolsi, Treasurer Julia Falchi, and Monsignor McCorristin.



"For united we stand; divided we fall." Robert Gyenge addresses the student body after being installed as Student Council president.

Senior class officers take the pledge to "uphold the principles of the Student Council". President Joseph Petralia, Vice-President Michael Malloy, Secretary Deborah Hoey.



Language Week Performance Sets Stage

The week of March 16, 1970, marked the first celebration of Language Week at Saint Anthony High. Bulletin boards and showcases displayed scenes of France, Spain, and Germany. A program in the gym highlighted the week's festivities.

Parts of the Lord's Prayer recited in each of the tongues opened the program. Then the curtain rose and the celebration began, as the French classes presented parts of Jean Anouihl's "Le Voyageur Sans Baggage." This was followed by an inspiring dance performed on the gym floor by girls of the Spanish classes. Clad in gay peasant costumes they danced to the music of "De Colores", sung by the Spanish students. On stage again, the German students presented an excerpt from the light drama, Drei Pfenniger Oper, with the "Beggar's Scene" from Act I.

Once again aspiring actors are making their debut on the stage at SA. Mr. Garrison, aided by Mr. Krupa, has successfully renewed the Drama Workshop. In December the members entertained the patients of St. Francis and Helene Fuld Hospitals with a play entitled Christmas Everyday.

Spring set the stage for a number of short plays presented to hospitalized children at Eastertime. In April the cast performed The Mouse That Roared in competition with local high schools. This comedy was also presented at St. Michael's Orphanage.

"De Colores se visten los campos en la primavera." Lynn Gerstnicker, Linda Carmignani, Denise Lombardo, and Alma Peters dance to the music. In the background Colleen Keegan plays the guitar.

"Vous êtes un vrai monstre," dit Linda Masick à Joseph Petralia in a scene from "Le Voyageur."

SA Publications Serve As

Perhaps the three least recognized extra curricular groups to frequent SA's halls are those students who band together each year to turn out the "Corristin", the "Talisman", and the "Antonian".

Members of the "Corristin" staff painstakingly piece their edition together like an intricate jigsaw puzzle, complementing the mood of each picture with an appropriate caption. The May debut of the "Corristin" more than soothes the labor-parched senses of its staff.

The "Talisman", SA's literary magazine, serves to exhibit the students' creative writing talents. Amateur poets, linguists, and short story writers are encouraged to submit their "masterpieces", though most of the contributions are products of the English classes.

Informative news coverage reserves priority on all pages of the school newspaper. The staff strives also to entertain its readers, cultivate fresh avenues of thought, and open new channels of communication between all groups in the school. Thumb-tacked fingers, throbbing temples, and bleary eyes smart just a little less each time the staff surprise themselves and everyone with a periodical that only one word can fittingly describe — "Antonian".

Editor-in-Chief Louis Revesz and Page Editors John Muka, Nancy Noon, and Anthony Ligato exchange ideas for a coming issue of the "Antonian."

Second Annual Music Festival Held

"Sound, sound, sound, the trumpets! Fill the air with loud hosannas."

That call summoned the combined talents of band and chorus for three exciting nights, May 13, 14, and 15. The occasion was the Second Annual Spring Music Festival, a celebration which made the audience "so very happy."

Musical selections ran the gamut of taste from Lerner & Loewe's "My Fair Lady" to Blood, Sweat & Tears' "Spinning Wheel", from the traditional "Danny Boy" to the exuberant "El Conquistador", from the conservative "Pilgrims Chorus" to the now "Aquarius".

The excitement was catchy. A tip of the baton by Mr. Salerno set the drums rolling, horns blowing, and cymbols clashing, while a wave of his hand released sparks of melody from an electrified chorus. Finally, in a patriotic salute to "Yankee Doodle" and our "Grand Old Flag", the newly outfitted drill team, color guard, and twirlers performed a routine conceived by Mr. Donlen.

All too soon, the curtain began to close, but not before the audience responded. Claps of approval filled the gym, and each performer felt the satisfaction of a job well done.

"And the band played on . . ." at the Spring Music Festival.

All Were Invited to "Come to the Celebrity Ball"

Ring Day — the occasion we all anxiously waited for finally arrived! The day began with Holy Mass celebrated by Father Holup. After the Gospel reading, Father Bohnsack spoke to us on the symbolism of our ring. Then after Holy Communion and the blessing of the rings, the new seniors celebrated their "coming of age" with the traditional turning of the rings.

That evening, everyone arrived for a night of fun at the Junior Prom, held in our cafeteria. Couples danced to a variety of tunes including the theme song, "Hello, Young Lovers." The decor of "Gay Italia" provided a rich setting. At twelve o'clock the prince and princess, John Dale and Vicki Corti, were crowned by Father Holup.

Too late to be included in the '71 "Corristin" was our Senior Formal, which took place on April 30, at Cedar Gardens. The theme was "April Love", and the colors, gold and white. This was the first time the prom was held in spring. Committee members included: Linda DiMucci, Diane Graziano, Deborah Lake, Lynn Worthington, John Britton, Joseph Mulé, Bernard Maruca, and Joseph Petralia.

Today's sore fingers become tomorrow's fond memories after the traditional turning of rings.

"This is the night to come to the Celebrity Ball . . ."

John Dale and Vickie Corti share the spotlight at the Junior Dance as Prince and Princess.

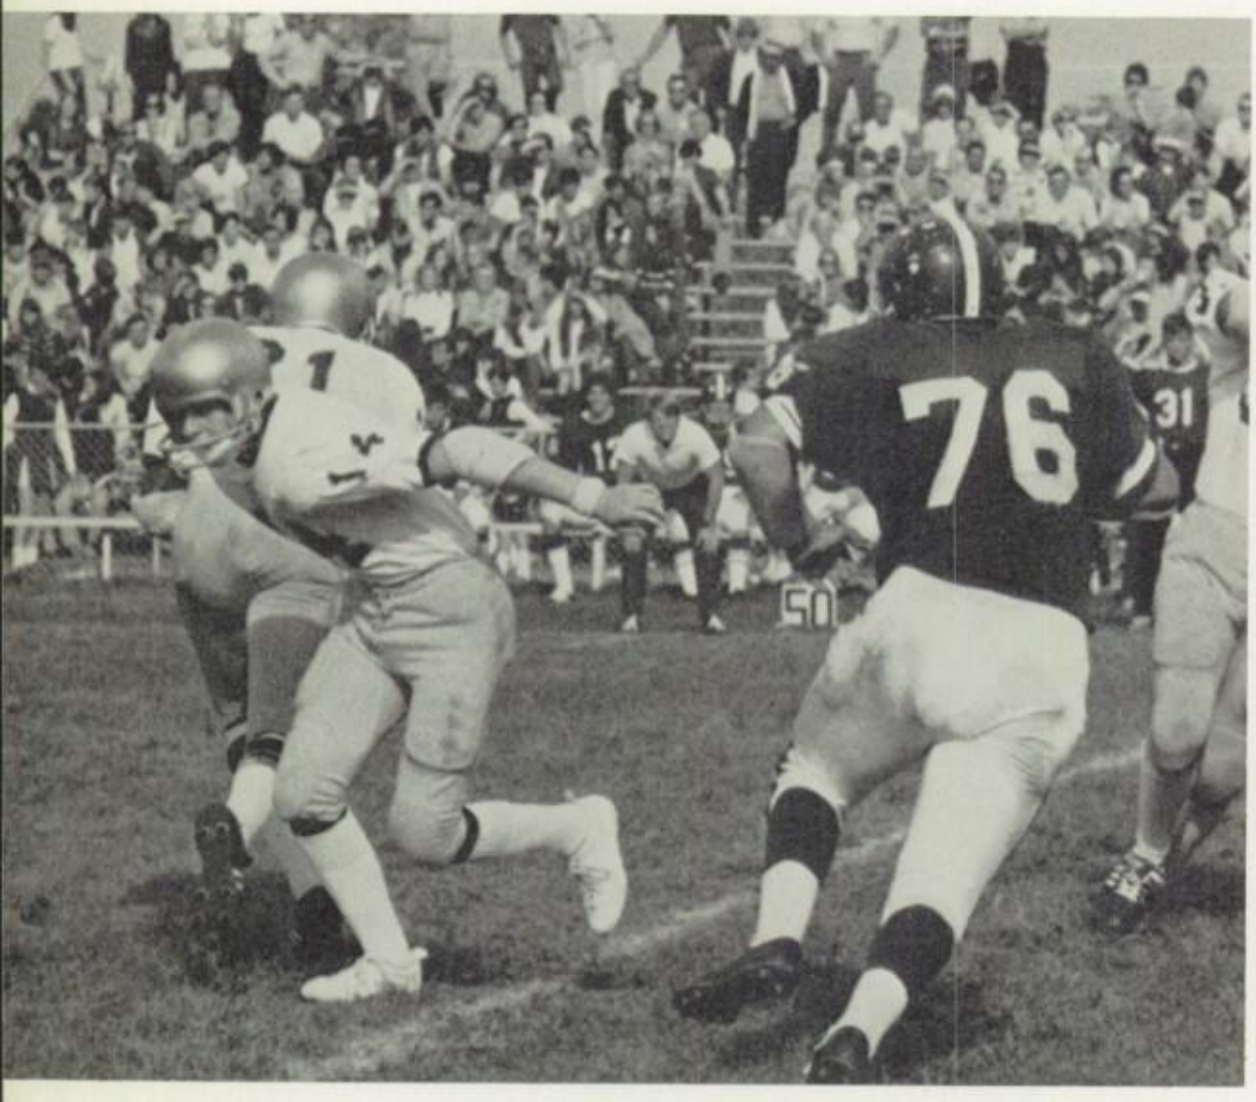
Two Senior Mikes, Scott Grocott and



Hard work, determination and perseverance—these make up the combination which charmed Iron Mike fans to firing up a fine team into a great playing season. Even though victories were sparse, the Mikes put out every bit of energy and strategy capable, proving to be a powerful opposition to every team they combatted.

Highlighting this year's schedule was the first night game in the school's football history played on the home field. It was at this game that the Brown and Gold gridders showed exceptional strength against their arch enemy, Notre Dame.

Despite a losing season, however, two '70 Iron Mike players placed on the All Mercer County Team. Named to first team linebacker is Captain Scott Grocott and to second team halfback is Co-Captain Steve Williams. Several other members of the team received honorable mention for outstanding playing ability.

Eluding Steinert's No. 76, Pat Dooling (14) hands off to Leon Lackey (21).

Lewis, Small Prove Valuable Assets to Future Team

The two top stars, Rich Small and Bill Lewis, demonstrate their starting position.

In closing another Cross-Country season, the Brown and Gold harriers compiled a 3-9-1 record. Under the coaching guidance of Mr. Bruce White, the 1970 team showed fine effort.

Special recognition goes to Junior Rich Small leading the team in speed. Following closely behind, Junior Bill Lewis also placed high at the meets. To add to the determination of the team were underclassmen Bob Weigand, Jim Dolan, Dave Kolezar, and Rich Latella. The three lettermen who are leaving are seniors Joe Latoof, John Muka, and John Wilson. Looking back on the records of past meets Coach Bruce White observed: "Well, we've had a lot of fun."

Booters Hope for Brighter Future

Although the Mikes showed a disappointing record this year, boasting only one win and one tie, their determination and hustle could not have been better. Lack of experience proved detrimental to the team, with only one senior member on the varsity squad. However, Senior Tim Kinnevy and Sophomore Barry Pellitieri managed to make All Mercer County Third Team. Never daunting, the Mikes look forward to better seasons ahead as their team matures.

Iron Mikes Rebuild; Gain Experience for '71-'72

Though lacking experience, the Iron Mike basketball squad proved a worthy opponent for the powerhouses of Trenton. In fact, the year 1970-'71 can be referred to as a "rebuilding year" for the Mikes. Looking forward to the next two years, Coach Doug Hice decided to mold a future dynamic team. With such outstanding underclass varsity members as Dan Giaquinto, John Kite, and Mike Kasian, he may have achieved his purpose.

The team could boast only two wins the entire season. However, the biggest defeat of this year's team will be the loss of the only two senior varsity members, forward Bob Martin and center Steve MacZinko. Steve, who made All-County Five, has set a new record for SA, reaching a total of 1,054 points in his high school career.

Sophomore John Kite (20) overcomes his Notre Dame opponent to add two points to the Iron Mike score.

Record Breaking John Mahon Leads '71 Track Stars

As the 1971 track season opens, Head Coach Bruce White and the team have high hopes for success. The Brown and Gold seems to be improving with age, and several school records are expected to be shattered this year. But all this depends on attitude, for the team does not lack ability.

Co-captains Joe Mulé and Jack Mahon, who has a pole vault record within reach, lead a veteran squad of ten seniors, along with a promising group of underclassmen, many of whom are also returning lettermen. This season is full of great expectations and the promise of more to come.

The backbone of this year's cindermen includes such promising hopefuls as Leon Lackey, Joe Mattonelli, Vince Yarmlak, and John McManimon.

Excelling in their own fields, senior track members Rick Ferry and Paul Slackta demonstrate their shot-put and javelin throwing abilities.

"Thank Heaven For Little Girls" — Where would any GAA show be without them? But they showed up, all of them. And so did the standing room only crowds, each night. Entertainment and expectation drew the audience last March, as Donna Bernocchi and the Brown Team battled and won over the defending champions, led by Barbara Abbott.

But, in November, the spirit of retaliation sparked Carol Sciarrotta's Gold Team on to victory against the Brown Team, headed by Julie Falchi. "Celebrate" marked the theme, with an extra night of competition adding to the suspense. And so another year of friendly rivalry came to an end with a Gold "Celebration" and Brown determination to emerge as next year's victor.

Dead End Kids demonstrate that Brown Team has a "Fever".

"Hug me! Hug me! Hug me!" Suzanne Pustae tells her Teddy Bear.

Whoever said that pyramids are found only in Egypt?

"Hi, Nancy! Hi, Helen! What's the story?" Telephone Hour scored a four night win for Brown Team.

Where would the GAA shows have been without the help of SA's own stage band conducted by Mr. Salerno?

Gold Team captain, Carol Sciarotta, celebrates another win that led to the final victory.

"Raindrops keep falling on my head", but they didn't dampen the spirits of this sunny event.

Boasts of Being "Biggest and Best"

As the year of 1971 brings our high school career to a close, those cherished memories of school days will long remain unforgettable and priceless.

Always . . .
we will cherish happy memories of our golden days at Saint Anthony High . . . the memories of Freshman Day, October 11, 1967, when the gym was magically changed into a forest, the hiding place of Robin Hood and his band of "merrie" students . . . "something sort of grandish," Finian's Rainbow—May 2-5, 1968 . . . the breathtaking sight of the gym transformed into a typical Italian café scene complete with the Trevi Fountain for the Junior Dance . . . the tense excitement, campaign speeches, bright posters and tags of Election Week . . . that "oh-why-didn't-I-open-a-book" shudder as report cards are distributed . . . the butterflies-in-the-stomach feeling on the opening night of the Spring Music Festival and of the G.A.A. Show . . . the thrill of victory—our first win of the football season . . . thoughts of friendships formed . . . all the laughs and tears . . .

Then comes Commencement Day! There's a smile of pride on our lips but a lump of sadness in our throats as we walk up the aisle to claim those coveted papers — our diplomas . . . our final celebration at Saint Anthony High.

TO S. A. H.

T'was but yesterday I came to you, my love,
Soft silent and hesitant at first—tiny footsteps towards you.—
Slowly reassured by your goodness,
I saw your arms reaching out to embrace me,
and reaching back,
I began my happy life.
Our years have swiftly passed,
and you have taught me
life is sweet,
and time is short,
and every instant precious.
Now as I leave you,
my departure is sad yet full of promise.
I am made strong with the knowledge
you have given to me and the love that we have found in one another.
I shall celebrate you in my heart, for always
I shall love you and remember,
for all the love we shared will never die.
